

Things to do in Richmond

March in Richmond is the beginning of spring time and there are a number of activities available if you want to come in a day early or leave a day late. All are located within 5 miles of Richmond Volleyball Club and offer senior discounts.

Belmont Golf Course features an 18-hole Championship PGA golf course. In 1949 the course was host to the PGA Championship won by Sam Snead.

www.co.henrico.va.us/departments/rec/belmont-golf-course

Lewis Ginter Botanical Gardens are located on land once owned by Patrick Henry. The Garden was founded in 1981 and is the foremost Botanical Garden in the state of Virginia. One of March's featured exhibits is Orchids Galore where hundreds of orchids will be available in the gardens observatory for intimate views and factual information.

www.lewisginter.org

The Virginia Museum of Fine Arts features many exhibits, including Mummy, Secrets of the Tomb and Elvis at 21. The Mummy exhibit features a 3-D movie narrated by Patrick Stewart and the Elvis exhibit features a series of black and white photographs taken when Elvis was only 21 and just starting to burst out on the American music scene.

www.vmfafa.state.va.us

These are just some of the activities available in and around Richmond. In addition, Richmond offers shopping malls and many great small restaurants, as well as historical sites from the early English colonists to the War Between the States and beyond.

<http://rvc.net/MCMasters.htm>